OHIO ARTS COUNCIL

2004♦2005

BIENNIAL♦REPORT

Introduction

State funding for the arts in Ohio decreased by $922,572 in the first year of the biennium and decreased by another $689,891 in the second year due to state budget reductions. The FY2004/2005 biennial budget of $23,441,359 represented a 15.1% decrease from the FY2002/2003 biennial budget of $27,617,445. Funding from the National Endowment for the Arts increased slightly but remained below earlier levels of more than $1 million per fiscal year.

In FY2004 the OAC began restructuring its funding programs, consolidating 24 programs into seven major funding areas. In addition the agency launched OLGA, the OnLine Grant Application system, creating the first completely electronic application system for the Ohio Arts Council. In late FY2005 the OAC began preparing for a leadership transition following the retirement announcement of the agency's long-tenured executive director, Wayne Lawson.

In this biennium, the Arts Council continued its International Music and Performing Arts in Communities Tour (IMPACT) of Ohio's churches and synagogues with the presentation of the Eblen Macari Trio and El Arranque in 2003 and 2004 and introduced the Summer IMPACT tour with the presentation of Kahurangi Maori Dance Theatre in 2004. The goal of the program is to expose new audiences to art forms from around the world through faith-based institutions and summer festivals, which are at the heart of every community.

In August 2004, the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) selected Ohio as the key state partner in a national school leadership initiative. In partnership with the Ohio Arts Council and the Ohio Department of Education (ODE), the NEA sponsored the Summer Institute for School Leaders. The Institute positioned Ohio at the forefront to develop a replicable model to be used around the nation for leadership institutes focusing on the challenge of comprehensive arts education for all K-12 grade students. Thirteen school districts and two educational service centers from around the state participated. A Web site was developed for the initiative with support materials and resources for participants and other school officials.

The OAC wrapped up activities from the U.S. Department of Education Fund for the Improvement of Education grant which expanded and strengthened the agency's international work. The partnerships with Ohio colleges and universities and arts institutions abroad provided successful cultural and educational exchanges for the state. One of the crowning achievements of the grant was a year long intensive residency in Central Ohio with Taiko master artist Eitetsu Hayashi. Building on the successful partnerships initiated during the Department of Education grant the OAC applied for and received a $100,000 grant from the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational Affairs Arts Exchanges on International Issues Program.

Along with our state's arts organizations and artists, the Ohio Arts Council is grateful to the Governor and the Legislature for their continuing support for the arts in Ohio.

This report lists, in four columns:

- Organizations and individuals who received Ohio Arts Council grants, fellowships and other support in fiscal years 2004-05
- Counties where they operated or lived
- Projects, programs or purposes for which they were funded
- Amount of OAC funding

Susan Sofia, Chair, Ohio Arts Council Board
Julie S. Henahan, Executive Director

The Ohio Arts Council is a state agency that funds and supports quality arts experiences to strengthen Ohio communities culturally, educationally and economically.

Riffe Gallery Exhibition Schedule Fiscal Years 2004-2005

Imagining Flight: Explorations by Dayton Artists

July 24 – October 19, 2003

Produced by the Dayton Visual Arts Center and curated by Kay Koeninger, director, the exhibition included 39 works by 12 Dayton-area artists inspired by the concept of flight. Imagining Flight celebrates the centennial of Orville and Wilbur Wright's remarkable achievement. The legacy of Dayton's Wright Brothers is evident in the western Ohio city even today. As a result, the artists in the exhibition take highly personal approaches to the theme of flight, employing a wide range of inspiration and media, including painting, drawing, video, photography, bookmaking, fiber art, sculpture and performance.

The Method & The Matrix: Contemporary Printmaking in Ohio

November 6, 2003 – January 4, 2004

Produced by the Ohio Arts Council's Riffe Gallery and curated by Todd deVriese and Bellamy Printz, the exhibition included work by 15 Ohio artists exploring fine art printmaking and the artists' fascination with process, experimentation, duplication and the use of traditionally commercial techniques for aesthetic purposes. For fine art printmakers the creation of a reproducible matrix – the surface on which the image is formed and from which each print is created – is a compelling part of the art making process. The exhibition toured to the Alice F. and Harris K. Weston Art Gallery, Cincinnati OH, January 23 – March 27, 2004

A Carnival of Animals: Beasts, Birds and Bugs in Original Illustrations from Children's Books

January 29 – April 18, 2004

Organized by The University of Findlay's Mazza Collection and Meridian International Center, the exhibition included 80 works by artists from the United States and abroad. A Carnival of Animals invited viewers to explore art in children's literature and helped to deepen their understanding of the process by which original art becomes part of a printed book. Viewers were greeted by the sometimes whimsical, sometimes dramatic and always tender portrayals of the animal world. Major support for this exhibition came from Time Warner Cable.

The Quilted Surface II: International Contemporary Art Quilts by Quilt Surface Design Symposium Participants

May 6 – July 18, 2004

Organized by Quilt Surface Design International, LTD and juried by Jill Davis and Ned Wert, The Quilted Surface II included works by 36 artists from the United States and abroad, including four Ohio artists. It was a juried exhibition of quilts created by past participants of the Quilt Surface Design Symposium.

Cuba Oriente: Contemporary Painting from Eastern Cuba

September 22 – October 31, 2004

Organized by the Meridian International Center and Eastern Cuba Cultural Exchange, Cuba Oriente: Contemporary Painting from Eastern Cuba includes 60 exceptionally rich and vibrant works from what is often described as the heartland of Cuban culture. At a distance of over 650 miles from Havana, the Oriente (eastern) region is not well known by Americans due to the complex relationship between Cuba and the United States. Cuba Oriente brought to light the stunning art of a colorful region.

Educators/Educated: Jewelry & Metals in Ohio

November 18, 2004 – January 23, 2005

Curated by Gail M. Brown, curator of Contemporary Craft, organized by the Ohio Arts Council, Educators/Educated: Jewelry & Metals in Ohio focused on the rich legacy of metals programs at Ohio's colleges and universities. Exceptional programs in jewelry and metalsmith were recognized in the exhibition of more than 70 artists. Educators and alumni from the University of Akron, Bowling Green State University, Cleveland Institute of Art, Kent State University, Miami University of Ohio and Ohio Wesleyan University were represented in the exhibition through a variety of media and a range of experience and personal imagination. The exhibition toured to the Butler Institute of American Arts – Trumbull Campus, February 19 – May 21, 2005 and the Cleveland Institute of Art, June 24 – July 25, 2005.

Design for the American Stage: Treasures from the Ohio State University's Lawrence and Lee Theatre Research Institute

February 10 – April 17, 2005

Curated by Nena Couch, Lawrence & Lee Theatre Research Institute and organized by The Ohio State University's Lawrence & Lee Theatre Research Institute this exhibition was drawn from the extensive design collection at The Ohio State University's Lawrence and Lee Theatre Research Institute, Design for the American Stage brought the magic of the stage to the art gallery.

Land of Latitudes: Contemporary Art From Chile

May 12 – July 10, 2005

Curated by Sara Johnson, director of visual arts at the Southern Ohio Museum and Cultural Center, and Betty Talbott, director of the Ohio Craft Museum, Land of Latitudes: Contemporary Art From Chile featured the work of 51 artists living in the South American nation. It confirmed Chile's international reputation in printmaking and ceramic work, but also exhibited how the nation's artists take full advantage of every conceivable option and freedom in pursuit of personal creativity.
