

Ohio Arts Job Preservation Grants

Akron

Akron Art Museum, $25,000

Grant will support two positions—communications assistant and security team leader. The communications assistant works with the communication officer on a variety of duties as well as managing the museum magazine, program calendar and the Web site. The security team leader is responsible for the safety of the art work in the museum's galleries, oversees security needs for special events and assists the security manager in administering the museum's safety program.

Summit Choral Society, $15,000

Grant will support the position of general manager responsible for the overall direction and management of the organization including developing strategies to achieve long-term goals, staff management, coordinating rehearsal and performance logistics, marketing and volunteer recruitment.

Cincinnati

Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, $10,000

Grant will support the position of production manager responsible for scheduling, negotiating with venues, maintenance of the music and recording library and other duties connected with the day-to-day operation of the orchestra.

Lyrca, $15,000

Grant will support an administrator position responsible for scheduling, communications, bookkeeping, volunteer coordination and other day-to-day operational duties.

Taft Museum of Art, $25,000

Grant will support the position of assistant curator for family and studio programs responsible for organizing and managing multidisciplinary education and outreach programs for all ages including people with disabilities.

Cleveland

Cleveland Public Art, $25,000

Grant will support the positions of two project managers who will serve as the primary link between artists and community members during projects, coordinate meetings and communication among involved parties and assist with marketing and administrative activities.

Great Lakes Theatre Festival, $15,000

Grant will support the position of school residency supervisor responsible for overseeing all aspects of the school residency program including the hiring, training, scheduling and evaluating of the teachers that deliver the program.

Sankofa Fine Art Plus, $25,000

Grant will support the position of executive director responsible for overseeing and managing all day-to-day activities of the organization.

Young Audiences of Northeast Ohio, $25,000

Grant will support the position of education manager responsible for overseeing the sales and administrative functions of all education programs and serving as the point of contact for teaching artists and schools.

Columbus

Columbus Association for the Performing Arts, $15,000

Grant will support the position of specialty ticketing marketing coordinator responsible for overseeing special ticketing programs such as group sales, providing Web site and database management and marketing services for the organization and two of its resident groups.

ProMusica Chamber Orchestra, $25,000

Grant will support the position of education director responsible for administering and managing all educational programs of the organization.

Dayton

The Human Race Theatre Company, $25,000

Grant will support the position of company manager responsible for management of artists including auditions, travel and housing, as well as supervision of the annual school tour and other administrative duties.

The Muse Machine, $15,000

Grant will support the position of secondary arts education specialist. The specialist works closely with the executive director to plan, implement and evaluate all facets of the secondary school program.

Dublin

Dublin Arts Council, $10,000

Grant will support the positions of educational consultant and exhibitions manager. The educational consultant is responsible for the educational components of the organization's visual arts programs. The exhibitions manager oversees administrative functions for a visual arts series.

MansfieldMansfield Fine Arts Guild, $15,000

Grant will support the position of education and outreach coordinator responsible for designing and facilitating activities to reach at-risk members of the community.

Renaissance Performing Arts Association, $25,000

Grant will support the position of education director responsible for conducting components of education and community programs.

PortsmouthSouthern Ohio Museum and Cultural Center, $15,000

Grant will support the position of curator of education during the 36-week school year. The Curator oversees all aspects of the organization's educational programming.

ToledoMasterworks Chorale, $10,000

Grant will support the position of outreach coordinator responsible for expansion of youth and senior engagement activities, increasing performance opportunities and other duties related to communication and partnerships within the community.

Toledo Orchestra, $25,000

Grant will support the positions of education and community outreach coordinator and an ensemble coordinator. These two positions are responsible for administering a variety of musical education programs including music lessons, in-school programs, a youth orchestra and concerts for young people and members of local communities.

WorthingtonWorthington Arts Council, $10,000

Grant will support the positions of administrative and programming assistant responsible for developing and coordinating community and educational arts programming.

ZanesvilleZanesville Museum of Art, $25,000

Grant will support the position of museum art educator. This position develops and implements the museum's public education programs.